

Strong Results for IAG's Auction Sale 84

IAG's September Auction, Sale Number 84, again proved to be a stunning success! The Live Floor Auction was well attended and the bidding underpinned by more than 2000 pre sale Online bids from over 180 bidders, with many lots selling for well above pre auction estimates.

Top price of $102,555 went to the finest known 1 Pound consecutive pair of banknotes from 1918 in virtually as printed condition. These far exceeded the pre auction estimate of $60,000 by being knocked down after spirited bidding. A record price for this issue, and a very strong result showing that quality and rarity are still the keys to the current market!

Banknote highlights sold include the only known Pre Decimal 7 Digit Star-note - a 5 Pound with serials 100000* realising $36,968. A rare 1813 Colonial Police Fund note sold for $33,390, and a rare WA Bank set of 3 from 1 Pound to 10 Pound sold for the same amount ($33,390), an extremely strong result given the current state of the Pre Federation market. A very rare $5 recoloured Specimen Note was also hotly contested, selling for well over the estimate at $31,005, an amazing realisation and the highest price for any Decimal Specimen note by a long way on the current market.

Key coins sold included a Type 6 Kookaburra Penny realising $26,235, a Rare South Africa Gold Een Pond was

The finest known One Pound consecutive pair of 1918 sold for a record price of $102,555.

This rare WA Bank set of 3 from 1 Pound to 10 Pound realized $33,390.

The Proof 1934 Florin sold for $10,732

A Type 6 Kookaburra Penny brought $26,235.

knocked down for $18,484, a Proof 1934 Florin sold for $10,732 and a nice 1930 Penny brought $18,484. The collection of GB coins were hotly contested, with a Pontefract Shilling fetching $9,302 against an estimate of $5,000, along with a number of choice early hammered issues selling for 30% -50% above estimate.

A rare pair of early $1 and $2 number 1 Serials from the first sheets realised $14,429, smashing the pre sale estimate of only $1,600. A rare Mule 5 Cent struck with a Cook Island Obverse was well sought after, hammering home for $7,394. Other interesting lots of note included Misprinted $100 notes with numerous different errors selling for $3,697, an Internment Camp Two Shillings with the central hole struck on the edge realising $2,385, and an Obverse brockage Penny George VI knocked down for $2,981.

IAG's next major live auction is Sale 85 in March 2017 with Live Online only Auctions planned for December 2016 and January 2017. Vendors who wish to consign to these upcoming Auctions can do so with IAG offering no Sellers fees or Commissions, potentially making them up to 20% more!

For catalogues, full prices realised or more information on this or upcoming sales, prices realised and highlights, visit IAG's website: www.iagauctions.com or phone (07) 55 380 300.

(Note: All prices quoted include the 19.25% buyer's premium on the Hammer price rounded to the nearest dollar).

☆☆☆

A Charles I Pontefract Shilling fetched $9,302 against an estimate of $5,000.

This rare 1813 Colonial Police Fund note sold for $33,390

The Rare South Africa Gold Een Pond was knocked down for $18,484.