Signature Sale 100 – Spectacular Highlights!

Signature Sale 100 in September is fast approaching! This spectacular auction will be our 100th Signature Sale, and as such, we are pulling out all the stops to make sure this Auction will be a Highlight Numismatic event, ensuring it becomes a benchmark auction long remembered!

Already included are three large Estates, including a selection from the Estate of Trevor Wilkin - a noted world and polymer banknote Sydney dealer, highlights from The Estate of Harold Peake including key error banknotes, and four significant collections featuring colonial rarities such as a Holey Dollar, Dumps, Proclamation coinage, Pre Decimal Proofs, Gold and more with over 1,000 lots catalogued!

Key Pre Decimal banknotes also feature, with high grade 10, 20 and 50 Pounds, the latter two with the impressive pedigree of being ex the M.P. Vort-Ronald collection. Also featured is a selection of pristine Unc Decimal Starnotes including key notes and pairs, with a $5 Phillips-Randall pair a standout.

Signature Sale 100 will also feature perhaps the largest and single most important collection of Australian Mis-struck error coinage known. The 'Eridmatos' collection, carefully curated over the last 10 years, comprises of 80 spectacular items, including some of the most significant errors seen in years. Highlights include two 1988 Mule 50 Cents - one Proof and one circulation issue - a 20 Cent struck on a bi-metallic Iranian 250 Rials blank, and numerous rare and unique issues struck on wrong planchets.

An original RAM die for a 1970 Five Cent is also part of the breathtaking Eridmatos collection

Limited space for vendors for Sale 100 remains, so if you want to be a part of this landmark auction, contact us now. Noteworthy, rarer and higher quality single items are still wanted, with general consignments being directed to our December sale due to overwhelming seller demand in our auctions.

Bidding opens mid August 2024.
