

IAG's Signature Auction Sale 85

IAG's next major Auction, Sale Number 85, is to be held on the 19th of March and has some amazing highlights. This important auction is definitely one not to be missed! Catalogues are out now and the entire auction can be viewed online on IAG's website www.iagauctions.com.

This highlight and rarity packed sale features some exciting items, including a superb Gold Taylor Pattern Shilling, one of only two known. Estimated at $280,000, this important coin is expected to draw widespread interest. Another key highlight is The Roth Family Holey Dollar 1813, a high grade example in aEF condition with countermarks virtually as struck, and an impressive provenance. This important colonial coin is estimated at $210,000.

A 1914H Specimen Proof Florin with superb pedigree is another of the key highlights on offer. One of only three known examples, this superb coin is Ex. the Birmingham Mint Collection, as well as several major Auctions from 1985 on. This coins was sold in 2011 for $221,350, so at the estimate of only $70,000, is a fantastic buying opportunity, and is part of a more extensive and impressive collection being offered in this sale.

Banknote highlights include an extremely rare 1 Pound Specimen 1923 Miller-Collins, one of only two such examples known. It is extremely rare to see George V Specimens on offer, and at the estimate of $34,000, is sure to be snapped up by a savvy buyer. Another rare and interesting Specimen note is a 10 Shillings 1933 (R 9), again extremely rare and estimated at $44,000, which is around the price an UNC note used to sell for! An important pair of $100 Specimens presented to head designer Gordon Andrews is also on offer, along with high quality Predecimal, Decimal, Starnotes and Misprints, as well as some rare Pre Federation signed and Specimen issues.

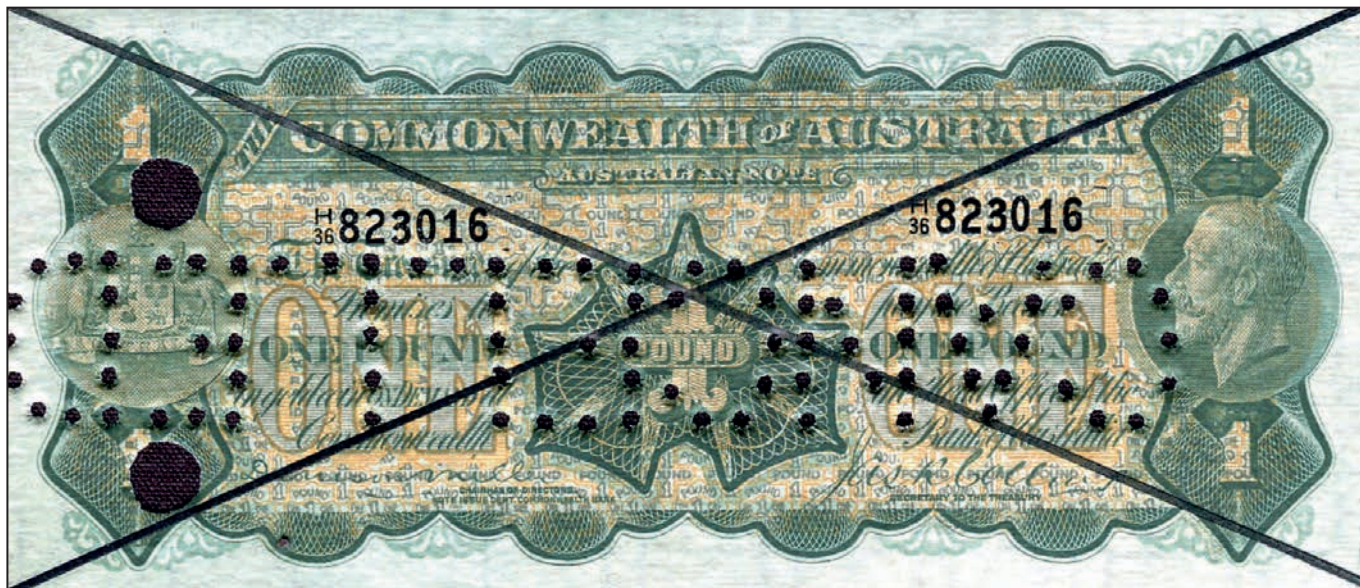

Coin highlights include a comprehensive selection of Pre Decimal coinage, comprising both proof and circulation issues in high grade. A few highlights in proof include a PCGS graded Shilling 1934 PR 66, a 1935 Penny and Halfpenny pair PR 64RB, a 1939 Roo Halfpenny, a 1938 Halfpenny and a 1928, 1935 and 1938 Penny. This is along with three 1930 Pennies in assorted grades priced from $6,000 upwards, along with a VF 1813 Dump

The Roth Holey Dollar. Estimated at $210,000.

Taylor Pattern Gold Shilling, Estimated at $280,000

Rare 1 Pound 1923 Specimen Estimated at $34,000

A few of the choice Pre Decimal Proofs to be offered at IAG's Sale 85.

and a large quantity of Choice and Gem grade coins, many PCGS graded including many rare issues.

Other highlights include some Gold, an excellent collection of Proclamation, World Coins, Mis Struck error coins including a rare 1970 Captain Cook 50 Cent brockage, GB, Mint products and much more in this highlight packed, high quality 800 lot sale.

Catalogues for Sale 85 and ALL lots can be viewed and downloaded free from IAG's website at www.iagauctions.com Highlights and other relevant auction information are also available on the website. Contact IAG direct on - Phone (07) 55 380 300 – Email mail@iagauctions.com for a yearly printed catalogue subscription, to securely and discreetly consign lots for upcoming sales, or for any further Auction information.

☆☆☆

The Birmingham Mint Museum 1914H Specimen Proof Florin

Source: The Australasian Coin & Banknote Magazine - March 2017