

IAG's Sale 93 to offer Part 1 of the Estate of the Late Klaus Ford

IAG's next major Signature Auction - Sale 93 - will feature the first part of the Estate of well known and respected dealer Klaus Ford, of Klaus Ford Numismatics, who sadly passed away last year. At present IAG is still sorting and cataloguing the more than 10,000 items (totalling over 900 kilos) in the estate. The selection of material is enormous, varied and of the high quality you would expect of a major dealer of more than 30 years, with everything from quality Australian Pre Decimal Coins and Banknotes, Proofs, Decimal and World Banknotes, World Coins, Medals and Medallions, Tokens, Gold, NPA, Mint issues, bulk lots and so much more. A particular highlight of note is a large selection of 1934/5 Melbourne Centenary Florins including a number of Proof, Specimen and Proof-like issues.

As of the time of writing, four other major collections have also just been consigned for the same auction. These include more than 30 Pre Federation issues, some fantastic and rare Pre Decimal Banknotes, a large collection of Gold and a major Error collection featuring over 100 Misprinted Banknotes and 20

A Unique Prommissory Note 1818 New Norfolk Van Diemens Land Estimated at $8,000

Part of a Large selction of in demand Pre Federation issues

A Rare 10 Shillings issue from 1952 estimated at $25,000.

Proof and Specimen Melbourne Centenary Florins ex Klaus Fords Estate

A Selection of some of the Major Misstrikes in Sale 93

A few key lots from the huge selection of Misprinted Banknotes

Mis-Struck coins including some of the most significant errors we have ever seen! The sheer quantity of the error collection and some Pre Federation will see it split over the next two major sales.

Other highlights of note include the Finest known Adelaide Pound 1852 Type II in Gem UNC Ex Harold Hastings-Deerings (previously offered), now with a reduced reserve to meet the market. More highlights catalogued so far include a rare George VI 10/- Specimen 1952 estimated at $25,000, a superb gold Egyptian Octadrachm of Ptolemy II (285-246 BC), along with a very rare early Promissory note from New Norfolk, the only such example known.

The highlights don't end there. A Banknote collection of note includes a 1 Pound 1923 Miller-Collins consecutive pair in UNC, a 5 Pound Starnote 1960 in UNC, several George V 10 Pounds in high grade including a 1925 Kell-Collins in gEF as just a few highlights. There are also numerous Pre Federation Specimen issues including a number of rare 50 and 100 Pound denominations. In coins there are hundreds of Pre Decimal issues with everything from high grade George V Copper and Silver to Proofs, along with a large selection of World, GB, Proclamation and so much more. Full details will be on the website closer to the auction date.

This auction, like all of IAG's auctions, will be held Live Online, with every lot photographed and displayed in high resolution.

The catalogue for Sale 93 will be available to download and view on IAG's website in early March, and hard copies available via subscription from IAG.
