

Highlights from IAG's Fantastic March Signature Sale 99!

International Auction Galleries' upcoming auction - Signature Sale 99 in March - is set to become another numismatic highlight event! Signature Sale 99 will open for Online bidding from the 20th of February, with the live auction to be held from the 12th to the 14th of March. With a record number of vendors represented in Sale 99 that include one huge estate of over 400kgs of material, and an auction total of 2,280 high quality lots, this auction is packed with rare and collectable items for every numismatic enthusiast. With pre-sale estimates totalling over $1.7 million, Sale 99 is set to be another impressive sale in a strong run of recent auctions for IAG.

The highest graded and very rare 1921 Kookaburra Halfpenny MS 65

A key highlight going under the hammer in Sale 99 is a 1920 Kookaburra Halfpenny graded MS 65. Whilst small in size, this superb rarity is set to make a big splash; estimated at $90,000, this is perhaps the finest example known of this very rare issue.

A Superb high grade example of the iconic 1930 Penny in gVF

A superior grade 1930 Penny with most of the band showing six clear pearls and the centre diamond is also sure to be in demand, with this coin perhaps in the top 15 examples of this famous rarity.

An attractive 1813 NSW Dump in aVF/VF

An attractive NSW Dump from 1813 is another highlight, and a feature of a great selection of colonial Proclamation issues. Graded as aVF/VF and estimated at $35,000, this example possesses a lovely light old tone with some original old reverse under-type present from the original host coin and has a strong crown.

A few more Key Rarities that feature in this fantastic sale

Just some of the many other key Pre Decimal Proofs to feature in this auction

Just some of the key banknotes to feature in a large selection of Pre-Decimal issued and Specimen notes, Superscribed and Pre Federation banknotes.

A Key decimal Error issue - a 20 Cent struck on a Hong Kong blank

Error coins include perhaps the key decimal error - a scalloped 20 Cent 1981 struck on a Hong Kong blank. This rare and striking error is always in high demand, and with only a handful known, is sure to be eagerly sought after!

A nice selection of Pre Federation Banknotes including a number of Specimens

Rare World and British Coins, Medals and Medallions

Numerous Pre Decimal banknote key issues

A significant range of rare Pre decimal and Decimal error coins

Some interesting and rare World Banknotes

A large selection of Rare and bullion Gold Half Sovereigns, Sovereigns and sets

Of course there is also IAG's usual wide selection of material on offer, including a large selection of gold issues including Half Sovereigns, Sovereigns and modern mint and bullion gold issues, a ranging selection of Pre Decimal coins - many PCGS graded including proofs - as well as Pre Federation issued and Specimen notes, Pre Decimal and a huge selection of Decimal banknotes highlighted by numerous first and Last Prefixes, Special Serial numbered notes, Error notes and Star notes. There is also a nice selection of British coins featuring a popular Gothic Crown, along with a large selection of World Coins and Banknotes. Mis-struck coins, a large selection of RAM and Perth Mint products, RAM rolls, NPA and so much more!
